

REFRAME

Every month we will be sharing highlights, updates and new features on the Reframe platform through this newsletter.

New opportunities and getting to know our support partners

As we reach the end of this month, we wanted to share some exciting updates and opportunities that are now live on the Reframe platform.

Opportunities

THE OPPORTUNITIES PAGE ON THE REFRAME WEBSITE WILL SHOW RELEVANT AND AVAILABLE OPPORTUNITIES FOR RLOS TO NETWORK AND GET SUPPORT FOR THEIR WORK DEPENDING ON THE THEMATIC AREAS THEY FOCUS ON.

- UNESCO has launched a call for nominations for the 2023 UNESCO-Japan Prize on Education for Sustainable Development (ESD). Generously funded by the Government of Japan, the Prize will award three prizes of US $50,000 to exceptional projects and programmes in the field of Education for Sustainable Development. - The Knowing Doing and Leadership network has launched a call for expression of interest to support education and learning. CUE is looking for up to 10 civil society organizations (CSOs) operating in geographically, economically, and culturally diverse communities across the world, particularly in the Global South, to join the KDNLC over the next four years to implement this work. SUPPORT PARTNERS

Youth Voices Community - Youth Voices will be leading Reframe's social media channels and communications.

Asha.io - Asha will be supporting the RLOs with a digital platform to improve their reporting and project management.

Sameskies Sameskies will be supporting RLOs in the Asia Pacific region.

Building our Reframe community

Do you know other refugee-led organizations who want to get involved?

- We want to keep growing the Reframe platform so more RLOs can benefit from this network, the resources and opportunities being shared. If you know of any RLO doing amazing work in their community please tell them to visit the site, sign up and reach out to our team.
